Code of Conduct “The Bethesda Dutch After School Program”

Dear Parents/Guardians:

The standards, rules and list of prohibited behaviors within this Code of Conduct are intended to maintain a mutually trusting and respectful relationship with our host, St. Bart’s school and Unitarian Church, and between all The Bethesda Dutch After School Program students, their parents, teachers, guests and visitors.

This code of conduct is essential for protecting (a) the long term security of our lease with our host; (b) the smooth functioning of our school on a day-to-day basis; and (c) the long term reputation and standing of our school within the wider Washington, D.C. community in which The Bethesda Dutch After School Program exists.

The Bethesda Dutch After School Program has defined a set of rules for our students that we feel are important for students to understand and for all involved to maintain. Please go over these rules and review them with your child.

IN GENERAL:

- Use program equipment, supplies, and facilities properly. Respect the property of others. Do not touch or take any item that is not yours. Don’t touch items in book bags, in desks, on shelves, in lockers. This means no taking or borrowing any items from the desks in the classrooms or from another student. Borrowing without asking is called stealing. Do not write on desks, walls, papers, or anything else that is not yours. Do not write on or erase anything on or from the classroom boards.
- Be on time, bring your materials – be ready for class
- Behavior in the classroom must be attentive and not distracting, do not interrupt instructional time. Do not bring any toys or other distracting objects from home into the classroom
- Show respect to other participants, and treat them as well as you would like to be treated. Show respect to teachers, assistants and other adults, and cooperate fully with their instructions. In short - treat everyone with courtesy and consideration.
- Communicate in an appropriate manner, which means you must not use foul language or gestures, harsh words or tone of voice.
- Conduct yourself responsibly. Understand that horseplay, unwelcome teasing or other unkind behaviors are not allowed.
- Do not eat or drink in the classrooms (except for water).
- Do not run in the hallways or on the stairs.
- Be careful when walking to the playground.

ICT:

World Wide Web

- Observe good “netiquette” (i.e., etiquette on the Internet) at all times and do not undertake any actions that may bring our school into disrepute.
- Never view, send or access materials which you would not want your teacher or parent(s) to see or that you know to be inappropriate. E.g. you will not visit Internet sites that contain obscene, illegal, hateful or otherwise objectionable materials.
- Use the Internet for educational purposes (as instructed) only.
- Never disclose or publicize personal information.
- Do not circumvent the World Wide Web content filters in any way to access blocked content.

Email

- Do not send or receive any e-mails during class time unless specifically asked by or giving permission for by your teacher.

Internet Chat (Facebook/Twitter/MSN Messaging/Yahoo Messenger/Skype)

- The use of any of the above mentioned is not allowed during class time, unless organized by a teacher.

iPads, Mobile Phones, PDAs and Digital Cameras at School

- Do not bring mobile phones or other electronics to class;
- Digital video or still cameras should only be used as part of a planned lesson with teacher supervision.
- Do not alter the iPads in any way, handle them carefully and only use them for the lesson the teacher tells you to use them for.

Supervision and Monitoring

- Filtering software and/or equivalent systems will be used in order to minimize the risk of exposure to inappropriate material.
- Teachers and other adults reserve the right to monitor students’ online activities.

These rules will be enforced by a series of actions including:

2. Phone call to the parents
